Six Journaling Prompts

From Tarot and Astrology: The Pursuit of Destiny (1941) by Muriel Bruce Hasbrouck

CARD RESEARCH AND NOTE-TAKING

Before commencing the six journaling prompts, look up the card meanings for each card from multiple sources. Also take a moment to scry into the card's imagery and add your own intuitive insights.

If you are assessing these five cards as a tarot reading about someone else, not you, objectively how would you answer the following six questions? Write your responses in the space provided. Try very hard not to think of this reading as being about you, but rather, about someone you don't know and therefore can exercise impartiality.

1. What are the main attributes of this personality?

2. What can you discern as some of this person's strengths?

3. What do you discern as some of this person's weaknesses?

4. What is the one major character flaw of this individual?

5. What gifts, talents, or skills does this person have to contribute to the world at large?

6. What is this person's life purpose?

Considering all that you've assessed so far, return to the five cards and now answer the below six questions as applied to yourself.

1. What are the main attributes of your personality?

2. What are your natural strengths?
